Livingston County Donates School Supplies to Students in Need

GENESEO, N.Y., Aug. 18, 2021 — Livingston County once again partnered with Catholic Charities Steuben/Livingston to provide school supplies to County students in need through the charity's Livingston County School Supply Drive.

Livingston County challenged employees to "Fill the Bus," a cardboard cutout in the shape of a school bus, with back-to-school item donations. The county collected backpacks, binders, pencils, paper, and more, said donation organizer Sandy Johnson of the Livingston County Real Property Tax Services office.

"As soon as I put the poster out announcing the charity drive, everyone here was so willing to help out. They usually shop on the weekends and come in Monday and they have the boxes almost all filled up that day. I think our employees are very generous and they look forward to helping out the kids each year."

This is the eighth year Livingston County has participated in the Livingston County School Supply Drive with Catholic Charities Steuben/Livingston. Livingston County families in need with school-aged children can pick up their donated backpack and supplies from Catholic Charities Steuben/Livingston on Friday, Aug. 20, 2021, from 9AM-4PM at the walk-up window at 34 E. State St., Mt. Morris. The charity requests those seeking assistance with back-to-school supplies sign up first at <https://ccsteubenlivingston.org/news-events/events/backpack-giveaway-livingston-county/> or call Jessica Pierce at 585.658.4466, ext 26.
