Livingston County Department of Health Recognized as a Healthy People 2030 Champion for Supporting the Initiative's Vision

Mount Morris, NY – The Livingston County Department of Health is pleased to be recognized by the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion (ODPHP) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as a Healthy People 2030 Champion.

As a Healthy People 2030 Champion, the Livingston County Department of Health has demonstrated a commitment to helping achieve the Healthy People 2030 vision of a society in which all people can achieve their full potential for health and well-being across the lifespan. ODPHP recognizes its Healthy People 2030 Champions as part of a growing network of organizations partnering with ODPHP to improve health and well-being at the local, state, and tribal level.

“ODPHP is thrilled to recognize the Livingston County Department of Health for its work to support the Healthy People 2030 vision,” says RADM Paul Reed, MD, ODPHP Director. “Only by collaborating with partners nationwide can we achieve Healthy People 2030’s overarching goals and objectives.”

Healthy People 2030 is the fifth iteration of the Healthy People initiative, which sets 10-year national objectives to improve health and well-being nationwide. Healthy People 2030 Champions are public and private organizations that are working to help achieve Healthy People objectives. They receive official support and recognition from ODPHP.

Jennifer Rodriguez, Public Health Director says, "We are excited about the opportunity regarding the Healthy People 2030 Champion initiative as it will enhance the Livingston County Department of Health's effort to improve the health and safety of our residents."

Healthy People 2030 Champion is a service mark of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Participation by the Livingston County Department of Health does not imply endorsement by HHS/ODPHP.

ODPHP plays a vital role in keeping the nation healthy through Healthy People 2030, the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, the Physical Activity Guidelines for Americans, the President’s Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition, and other programs, services, and education activities. ODPHP is part of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health (OASH) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
