Livingston County Staff Graduate from NACo Leadership Academy

The innovative program equips frontline county government professionals with skills to deliver results for counties and communities

GENESEO, N.Y., Aug. 10, 2022 — Several Livingston County employees have now graduated from the National Association of Counties (NACo) High Performance Leadership Academy (HPLA).

The online 12-week program equips frontline county government professionals with practical leadership skills to deliver results for counties and communities across the U.S. The robust curriculum was developed by the Professional Development Academy in partnership with Fortune 1000 executives, public sector leaders, world-renowned academics and thought leaders, including General Colin Powell and Dr. Marshall Goldsmith. HPLA was designed specifically for the unique challenges and opportunities of serving in county government.

Livingston County HPLA Graduates:

Lindsay P. Quintilone, Esq., Public Defender

Andrea Bailey, County Clerk

Heather Ferrero, Deputy Planning Director

Megan Crowe, Planning Department Senior Planner

Mary Guldenschuh, Workforce Development and Youth Bureau Deputy Director

Tracy McCaughey, Social Services Commissioner

Tracy Byrd, Workforce Development Employment and Training Counselor
